

John Donald Robb, is the Chairman and founder of New Mexico Christian Legal Aid, Inc. which trains and provides 50 volunteer lawyers to poverty clients in Albuquerque. He was the first President and long-time Board member of the Law and Poverty Center, an advocacy group for the poor and homeless.

He has been instrumental in providing counsel, advice and legal help to the impoverished through organizations such as Joy Junction, the Albuquerque Rescue Mission and Noon Day Ministries.

John was honored in 1999 for his work in creating the National Legal Aid Society and for his work with the Albuquerque Legal Aid Society.

Mr. Robb and his family donated and endowed the John Donald Robb Archive of Southwestern Music at UNM, a project to preserve and protect Southwestern recordings and sheet music for future generations.

(2003)